Index

ALLEN, HENRY T. Present Franco-German Situation, 15–8.
America, how, can help Near East, 69; isolation of, 84.
American Defense Society, 124.
American experiment of government, 147–8; applying, to Europe, 161–3.
AMERICAN OBSTACLES TO ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION. James G. MacDonald, 56–8.
American Relief Administration in Russia, work of, 103.
AMERICA'S PRESENT NEED—A STRONG FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY. Henry R. Rathbone, 80–3.
Andrew, A. Piatt, on pre-Armistice loans, 47.
ANGELL, JAMES W. The Effect of the Debt Settlements on the Trade Balance of the United States, 38–41.
ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION, AMERICAN OBSTACLES. James G. McDonald, 56–8.
ARMISTICE, GERMANY'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT SINCE THE. Ludwig Bendix, 22–6.

BENDIX, LUDWIG. Germany's Economic Development Since the Armistice, 22–6.
Birth control, England, 31.
British Trades Union Delegation to Russia, extracts from report, 112–4.
British Women Trade Unionists, report re Russia, 118.
Budget, French, condition of, 1–2.

Caillaux, M., 74.
CATT, CARRIE CHAPMAN. International Opinion, Friction in, 49–50.
CHINARD, GILBERT. Sidelights on the Present Situation in France, 4–6.
Code, of international ethics, possibility of, 82.
COLLINGS, HARRY T. Foreign Investment Policy of the U. S., 71–9.

DAVIS, JEROME. Should America Quarantine the Russian Soviet Government? 117–25.
DAVIS, NORMAN H. The Problems Involved in the Settlement of International Obligations, 24–7.
Dawes Plan, aid of, 35, 88, 89.
Debt: adjusting payments, 43; general attitude of U. S. vs. European re, 44–50; influence of, on U. S. trade balance, 38; modification of, 44; to U. S., 38; situation, French sentimental side of, 46.
DEBT SETTLEMENTS, THE EFFECT OF THE, ON THE TRADE BALANCE OF THE U. S. James W. Angell, 38–41.
DEBT, WHY THE FRENCH, SHOULD BE CANCELLED. John H. Latané, 46–8.
Debtor-creditor relations, new, 28.
Debts, conditions re, interest paid and due, etc., 27, 28; effect on U. S., 32–3; intergovernmental problems of, 36, 37; refunding, leniency in, 42.
DEBTS, THE EFFECT ON AMERICAN WORKERS OF COLLECTING ALLIED. Matthew Woll, 42–5.
Disarmament: attempts at, 154; difficulties in, 64; impetus of Locarno treaties on, 161; Preliminary Conference on, task of, 144; progress toward, 156; problem of, intricacies of, 51–3; value of partial, 56.
DISARMAMENT, THE LOCARNO PACTS AND THE MOVEMENT FOR. Nelson P. Mead, 62–4.
DISARMAMENT, ORGANIZATION FOR MUTUAL SECURITY THE CONDITION PRECEDENT TO. Charles G. Fenwick, 154–7.
DISARMAMENT AND THE PRESENT OUTLOOK FOR PEACE. Irvine L. Lenroot, 142–5.
DISARMAMENT, THE PROBLEM OF. James T. Shotwell, 51–5.
DISARMAMENT THROUGH INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION. James Brown Scott, 146–50.
DISCUSSION. Raymond Robins, 110–6.
Dollar Diplomacy, 74.

EDWARDS, GEORGE W. Foreign Investment Policies and Their Relation to International Peace, 95–7.
EFFECT ON AMERICAN WORKERS OF COLLECTING ALLIED DEBTS, THE. Matthew Woll, 42–5.
EFFECT OF THE DEBT SETTLEMENTS ON THE TRADE BALANCE OF THE U. S., THE. James W. Angell, 38–41.
EFFECT OF THE DEBT SITUATION UPON EUROPE'S RELATION WITH THE U. S., THE. Ernest Minor Patterson, 27–33.
England, internal conditions in, 30–31.
Europe, difficulties of installing American type of government in, 161–3; solving difficulties in, 149–50.

Fascism, peril of, 151.
Fear, menace of, to peace, 142.
FEIS, HERBERT. A Successful League of Nations the Basis of European Security, 65–7.
FENWICK, CHARLES G. Organization for Mutual Security the Condition Precedent to Disarmament, 154–7.
Financial conditions, debtor countries, 31.
FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE U. S., THE. Harry T. Collings, 71–9.
FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICIES AND THEIR RELATION TO INTERNATIONAL PEACE. George W. Edwards, 95–7.

Index

ALLEN, HENRY T. Present Franco-German Situation, 15–8.
America, how, can help Near East, 69; isolation of, 84.
American Defense Society, 124.
American experiment of government, 147–8; applying, to Europe, 161–3.
AMERICAN OBSTACLES TO ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION. James G. MacDonald, 56–8.
American Relief Administration in Russia, work of, 103.
AMERICA'S PRESENT NEED—A STRONG FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY. Henry R. Rathbone, 80–3.
Andrew, A. Piatt, on pre-Armistice loans, 47.
ANGELL, JAMES W. The Effect of the Debt Settlements on the Trade Balance of the United States, 38–41.
ARBITRATION AND CONCILIATION, AMERICAN OBSTACLES. James G. McDonald, 56–8.
ARMISTICE, GERMANY'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT SINCE THE. Ludwig Bendix, 22–6.

BENDIX, LUDWIG. Germany's Economic Development Since the Armistice, 22–6.
Birth control, England, 31.
British Trades Union Delegation to Russia, extracts from report, 112–4.
British Women Trade Unionists, report re Russia, 118.
Budget, French, condition of, 1–2.

Caillaux, M., 74.
CATT, CARRIE CHAPMAN. International Opinion, Friction in, 49–50.
CHINARD, GILBERT. Sidelights on the Present Situation in France, 4–6.
Code, of international ethics, possibility of, 82.
COLLINGS, HARRY T. Foreign Investment Policy of the U. S., 71–9.

DAVIS, JEROME. Should America Quarantine the Russian Soviet Government? 117–25.
DAVIS, NORMAN H. The Problems Involved in the Settlement of International Obligations, 24–7.
Dawes Plan, aid of, 35, 88, 89.
Debt: adjusting payments, 43; general attitude of U. S. vs. European re, 44–50; influence of, on U. S. trade balance, 38; modification of, 44; to U. S., 38; situation, French sentimental side of, 46.
DEBT SETTLEMENTS, THE EFFECT OF THE, ON THE TRADE BALANCE OF THE U. S. James W. Angell, 38–41.
DEBT, WHY THE FRENCH, SHOULD BE CANCELLED. John H. Latané, 46–8.
Debtor-creditor relations, new, 28.
Debts, conditions re, interest paid and due, etc., 27, 28; effect on U. S., 32–3; intergovernmental problems of, 36, 37; refunding, leniency in, 42.
DEBTS, THE EFFECT ON AMERICAN WORKERS OF COLLECTING ALLIED. Matthew Woll, 42–5.
Disarmament: attempts at, 154; difficulties in, 64; impetus of Locarno treaties on, 161; Preliminary Conference on, task of, 144; progress toward, 156; problem of, intricacies of, 51–3; value of partial, 56.
DISARMAMENT, THE LOCARNO PACTS AND THE MOVEMENT FOR. Nelson P. Mead, 62–4.
DISARMAMENT, ORGANIZATION FOR MUTUAL SECURITY THE CONDITION PRECEDENT TO. Charles G. Fenwick, 154–7.
DISARMAMENT AND THE PRESENT OUTLOOK FOR PEACE. Irvine L. Lenroot, 142–5.
DISARMAMENT, THE PROBLEM OF. James T. Shotwell, 51–5.
DISARMAMENT THROUGH INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION. James Brown Scott, 146–50.
DISCUSSION. Raymond Robins, 110–6.
Dollar Diplomacy, 74.

EDWARDS, GEORGE W. Foreign Investment Policies and Their Relation to International Peace, 95–7.
EFFECT ON AMERICAN WORKERS OF COLLECTING ALLIED DEBTS, THE. Matthew Woll, 42–5.
EFFECT OF THE DEBT SETTLEMENTS ON THE TRADE BALANCE OF THE U. S., THE. James W. Angell, 38–41.
EFFECT OF THE DEBT SITUATION UPON EUROPE'S RELATION WITH THE U. S., THE. Ernest Minor Patterson, 27–33.
England, internal conditions in, 30–31.
Europe, difficulties of installing American type of government in, 161–3; solving difficulties in, 149–50.

Fascism, peril of, 151.
Fear, menace of, to peace, 142.
FEIS, HERBERT. A Successful League of Nations the Basis of European Security, 65–7.
FENWICK, CHARLES G. Organization for Mutual Security the Condition Precedent to Disarmament, 154–7.
Financial conditions, debtor countries, 31.
FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE U. S., THE. Harry T. Collings, 71–9.
FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICIES AND THEIR RELATION TO INTERNATIONAL PEACE. George W. Edwards, 95–7.

FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY, THE PRACTICAL SIDE OF AMERICA'S NEW. Franklin W. Fort, 84–6.
Foreign policy, U. S., difficulties in developing, 66.
FORT, FRANKLIN W. The Practical Side of America's New Foreign Investment Policy, 84–6.
France: change in policies after Poincaré administration, 15; and England, political situation in, 62; general erroneous opinion re, 11; and Germany, need for friendly relations between, 15; governmental stability of, 11; internal conditions in, 15, 30; present, 4, 5; pacific intentions, 8, racial antagonisms, Germany and, 4; war toll in, 8.
FRANCE, SIDELIGHTS ON THE PRESENT SITUATION IN. Gilbert Chinard, 4–6.
FRANCE, SOURCES OF STABILITY AND VITALITY IN. Herbert Adams Gibbons, 11–4.
Franco-German contention, 17; problem, change in outlook of, 19–21.
FRANCO-GERMAN RELATIONS, NEW FACTORS IN. Christian Gauss, 19–21.
FRANCO-GERMAN SITUATION, PRESENT. Henry T. Allen, 15–8.
French budget, unbalanced, 1–2; characteristics, 5; currency, trend of, 1; economic strength of, 13; general unity of, 12; government stability of, 5.
FRENCH SITUATION, THE. Harold G. Moulton, 1–3.
FRENCH VIEW OF AN UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN FRANCE AND GERMANY. Frederick G. Hoffher, 7–10.
FRICTION IN INTERNATIONAL OPINION. Carrie Chapman Catt, 49–50.

GAUSS, CHRISTIAN. New Factors in Franco-German Relations, 19–21.
Germany: democratic trend in, 152; desires of, 16; internal conditions in, 16, 30; economic recovery of, post-war, 22–4; financial status, present, 24–5; production, effect on, of debt payments, 44; and Soviet government, relations with, 16–7.
GERMANY'S ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT SINCE THE ARMISTICE. Ludwig Bendix, 22–6.
GIBBONS, HERBERT ADAMS. Sources of Stability and Vitality in France, 11–4.
GOODRICH, JAMES P. The Situation in Russia, 126–30.
Governments, recognition of, opinions re, 114–5.
Great Britain, position of, in foreign affairs, 85.

HAPGOOD, NORMAN. Is Wilson's Dream Coming True? 151–3.
Harriman, W. A., abandonment of Russo-German project by, 74.
HARRIS, H. WILSON. Locarno: A European View, 160–3.
HINDUS, MAURICE G. The Russian Peasant and the Soviet Government, 138–41.
HOFFHER, FREDERICK G. French View of an Understanding Between France and Germany, 7–10.
Hopkins, Pres. Dartmouth College, remarks re Russia, 124.

Imports and exports, relative increase in U. S., 39.
Industrial reorganization, 23.
Inflation, German, results of, 22; resort to, of powers, 29.
Investments, foreign: U. S., 72–4; U. S., foreign policy re, 74–5, 80, 81, 82–3, 87–8, 90, 91, 94; world foreign, effect of war on, 72; value of U. S., 88.
INVESTMENT POLICY, A STRONG—AMERICA'S PRESENT NEED. Henry R. Rathbone, 80–3.
IS WILSON'S DREAM COMING TRUE? Norman Hapgood, 151–3.
Italy, internal conditions in, 30.

King, Senator William H., re Soviet Government, 121.

Labor, American opposition to recognition of Russia, 136.
LATANÉ, JOHN H. Why the French Debt Should Be Cancelled, 46–8.
League of Nations, Council of, work of, re Bulgaria, 54; importance and need of, 65; value of, 152; work of, 62–3.
LEAGUE OF NATIONS, A SUCCESSFUL, THE BASIS OF EUROPEAN SECURITY. Herbert Feis, 65–7.
LENROOT, IRVINE L. Disarmament and the Present Outlook for Peace, 142–5.
LIMITATIONS UPON THE ADOPTION OF ANY FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY BY THE U. S. Breckinridge Long, 92–4.
Loans: foreign, prior to Great War, 71; international prewar, 95, 96; Liberty, issuance of, 72; price of war, 47.
Locarno treaties: 52, 64, 156, 160; content of, 59; flaws in, 59, 160; importance of, 144.
LOCARNO AGREEMENTS, THE. William Macdonald, 59–61.
LOCARNO: A EUROPEAN VIEW. H. Wilson Harris, 160–3.
LOCARNO PACTS AND THE MOVEMENT FOR DISARMAMENT, THE. Nelson P. Mead, 62–4.
LONG, BRECKINRIDGE. Limitations Upon the Adoption of Any Foreign Investment Policy, 92–4.

MacDonald, Ramsay, 62, 152
MACDONALD, WILLIAM. The Locarno Agreements, 59–61.

Masaryk, President, 127
McDONALD, JAMES G. American Obstacles to Arbitration and Conciliation, 56–8.
MEAD, NELSON P. The Locarno Pacts and the Movement for Disarmament, 62–4.
Moore, John Bassett, re treaties, 57.
MOULTON, HAROLD G. The French Situation, 1–3.

Near East and America, isolation of, 68.
NEED OF AN AMERICAN POLICY IN THE NEAR EAST, THE. Adamantios Th. Polyzoides, 68–70.
Neutrality, need for restatement of principles of, 52.
NEW FACTORS IN FRANCO-GERMAN RELATIONS. Christian Gauss, 19–21.

OBLIGATIONS, THE PROBLEMS INVOLVED IN THE SETTLEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL. Norman H. Davis, 34–7.
ORGANIZATION FOR MUTUAL SECURITY THE CONDITION PRECEDENT TO DISARMAMENT. Charles G. Fenwick, 154–7.

PATTERSON, ERNEST MINOR. The Effect of the Debt Situation upon Europe's Relations with the U. S., 27–33.
Peace, demand for, 158; steps toward, 143–4; treaties, divergent views re (England and France), 62.
PEACE, DISARMAMENT AND THE PRESENT OUTLOOK FOR. Irvine L. Lenroot, 142–5.
PEACE, FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICIES AND THEIR RELATION TO INTERNATIONAL PEACE. George W. Edwards, 95–7.
Peasants, Russian, demands of, 126, 136–40.
Permanent Court of International Justice, U. S. adherence, dangers in, 57–8.
PITTMAN, KEY. The U. S. and Russia—Obstacles to Recognition of Present Soviet, 131–3.
Poincaré, administration of, 15, 62, 152.
POLYZOIDES, ADAMANTIOS, TH. Need of an American Policy in the Near East, 68–70.
PRACTICAL SIDE OF AMERICA'S NEW FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY, THE. Franklin W. Fort, 84–6.
PRESENT FRANCO-GERMAN SITUATION. Henry T. Allen, 15–8.
PRESENT TENDENCIES IN THE INVESTMENT OF AMERICAN CAPITAL IN EUROPE. Louis E. Van Norman, 87–91.
PROBLEM OF DISARMAMENT, THE. James T. Shotwell, 51–5.
PROBLEMS INVOLVED IN THE SETTLEMENT OF INTERNATIONAL OBLIGATIONS. Norman H. Davis, 34–7.
Production and labor, German, post-war conditions, 22.
Protocol, Geneva, 63.

RATHBONE, HENRY R. America's Present Need—A Strong Foreign Investment Policy, 80–3.
Reconstruction program, Austria and Hungary, 88, 89.
Reparations Commission, 34; German, difficulties of, 34–5.
RITCHIE, ALBERT C. Some Facts Underlying the Relationship Between the U. S. and Russia, 98–9.
ROBINS, RAYMOND. Discussion, 110–6; U. S. Recognition of Soviet Russia Essential to World Peace and Stabilization, 100–4; Universal Peace—A World Challenge, 158–9.
Root, Elihu, proposals of, 149, recognition of Russia, 136.
Rush-Bagot Agreement, 147.
Russia: conditions in, 98; de facto recognition of, Foreign Policy Asso., 114; difficulties in ascertaining truth re, 117–8; internal conditions, 118–9; need for coöperation, 129; obstacles to peace, 145; recognition of, reasons for, 121; Soviet international agencies in, 119; and Germany, trade with, 25; peasants of, effect of Revolution on, 138, 140; peasants, 139–40; demands of, 126; political conditions in, 131. Soviet government, see under S.
RUSSIA, THE SITUATION IN. James P. Goodrich, 126–30.
RUSSIAN PEASANT AND THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT, THE. Maurice G. Hindus, 138–41.

SCOTT, JAMES BROWN. Disarmament through International Organization, 146–50.
SHOTWELL, JAMES T. The Problem of Disarmament, 51–5.
SHOULD AMERICA QUARANTINE THE RUSSIAN SOVIET GOVERNMENT? Jerome Davis, 117–25.
SIDELIGHTS ON THE PRESENT SITUATION IN FRANCE. Gilbert Chinard, 4–6.
SITUATION IN RUSSIA, THE. James P. Goodrich, 126–30.
Sisson documents, 121.
SOME FACTS UNDERLYING THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE U. S. AND RUSSIA. Albert C. Ritchie, 98–9.
SOURCES OF STABILITY AND VITALITY IN FRANCE. Herbert Adams Gibbons, 11–14.
Soviet Government: achievements of, 122, 136, 137; international agencies, 199; past attitude of U. S. towards, 103; policy and work of, 131–2; present condition of, 100; recognition of, by foreign governments, 120; reason for U. S. recognition of, 101–3, 110, 134; obstacles to, 128; reports re, 121; support of peasants, 130; propaganda, 127; statements re, 115–6; trade conditions, 134.
SOVIET GOVERNMENT, THE RUSSIAN PEASANT AND THE. Maurice G. Hindus, 138–41.

SOVIET GOVERNMENT, SHOULD AMERICA QUARANTINE THE RUSSIAN? Jerome Davis, 117–25.
SOVIET RÉGIME, OBSTACLES TO RECOGNITION OF PRESENT—THE U. S. AND RUSSIA. Key Pittman, 131–3.
SOVIET RUSSIA, U. S. RECOGNITION OF, ESSENTIAL TO WORLD PEACE AND STABILIZATION. Raymond Robins, 100–4.
SOVIET RUSSIA'S FOREIGN POLICY DOES NOT JUSTIFY U. S. RECOGNITION YET. Edmund A. Walsh, 105–9.
SOVIET GOVERNMENT, WHY THE, CANNOT BE RECOGNIZED. Chester M. Wright, 134–7.
SUCCESSFUL LEAGUE OF NATIONS THE BASIS OF EUROPEAN SECURITY, A. Herbert Feis, 65–7.
Switzerland, peaceful conditions in, 146.

Tariff, need for reduced, 78; present, 44; U. S. barriers, 29.
Taxation, conditions re in France, 2.
Tourists, American, factor of money expended by, 89–90.
Trade balance, changed, effect of on European trade, 40; unfavorable U. S., 77; reversal, obstacles to in England and Continent, 29–31; encouraging of non-competitive products U. S., 82; foreign, Germany's future, 25.
Treaty of Mutual Assistance, failure of, 63.

U. S.: aid by, to world peace, 145; backwardness of, in arbitration, 57; demand for financial experts, 89; effect of war on investments, 87; financial conditions, future, 45; financial status, changed, 87; and Great War, participation in, 49; foreign investments, 71, 72–4; policies, 66, 74–5, 76, 77, 84–5, 92, 97; isolation policy, abandonment of, 21; large scale production in, 44; and Russia, non-recognition of, 99, 123–5, 131–3; settling early difficulties in, 146–7.
U. S., THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY OF THE. Harry T. Collings, 71–9.
U. S., LIMITATIONS UPON THE ADOPTION OF ANY FOREIGN INVESTMENT POLICY BY THE. Breckinridge Long, 92–4.
U. S. RECOGNITION OF SOVIET RUSSIA ESSENTIAL TO WORLD PEACE AND STABILIZATION. Raymond Robins, 100–4.
U. S. AND RUSSIA, THE—OBSTACLES TO RECOGNITION OF PRESENT SOVIET RÉGIME. Key Pittman, 131–3.
UNIVERSAL PEACE—A WORLD CHALLENGE. Raymond Robins, 158–9.

VAN NORMAN, LOUIS E. Present Tendencies in the Investment of American Capital in Europe, 87–91.

War: causes of, 142; outlawing offensive and defensive, 155; prevention of, fundamentals for, 142.
Washington Conference, lack of follow-up work at, 56.
WHY THE SOVIET GOVERNMENT CANNOT BE RECOGNIZED. Chester M. Wright, 134–7.
Wilson, President, and the Near East, 68; and Peace, 151–2.
WOLL, MATTHEW. The Effect on American Workers of Collecting Allied Debts, 42–5.
WRIGHT, CHESTER M. Why the Soviet Government Cannot be Recognized, 134–7.
WHY THE FRENCH DEBT SHOULD BE CANCELLED. John H. Latané, 46–8.
WALSH, EDMUND A. Soviet Russia's Foreign Policy Does Not Justify U. S. Recognition Yet, 105–9.